F o r e w o r d

LIKE KNIGHTS in search of truth, we now journey along the road to knowledge, marching happily, struggling bravely,
and trying loyally to attain our highest ideals.
For this reason we cherish the hope that, as the way grows wider with the passing years, this copy of L'Acadien may serve to bring back old scenes, old friends, and old memories of joyous days at our beloved

Dedication

TO PROFESSOR Harry DeLaRue, a man who, with quiet dignity and unassuming manner, has stimulated us to evaluate properly and has taught us by his own life to appreciate true worth and fineness of character, we dedicate this volume of L'Acadien

THE Bulldogs, after a short training period journeyed to Shreveport, September 29, to meet the strong Centenary Gentlemen and went down before the mighty Gents 45-0 in one of the most gruelling encounters that the team has ever known. In this game Hanchey, Thomas, and several others were severely injured as a result of the "gentlemen's" deliberations. Hanchey and Thomas spent the remainder of the season on the bench, thereby weakening both the backfield and line as both men were stars of the first class.

The week following the Centenary encounter, October 6, the squad ambled up to Baton Rouge for a tussle with the Louisiana State Tigers and left the Tiger stronghold with another 45-0 defeat hanging to their loss column, but not before giving a good account of themselves. Due to the fine physical condition of the men not one was even slightly injured in this game.

Undaunted by two defeats the Bulldogs took on the flashy Mississippi College Choctaws from Clinton, Mississippi, October 13, in the Southwestern Stadium before a large crowd, but the passing and running of the Choctaw Captain, Stanfield Hitt, was too much for the Bulldogs, and the Chocs scalped the Dogs 19-0. The game was very ragged and the weather was exceedingly warm, making the whole day uninteresting for the spectators. This game brought out a star in the person of McCall, whose defensive work featured the contest.

Following their third defeat in as many games, rigid and strenuous training was the lot of the Bulldogs, who seemed to lack a hardness or fitness that comes to a team usually after they have played several games, and Coach Mobley spared nothing to have the team ready for the Springhill Badgers October 20 in Mobile. They were ready, and when the final whistle was blown the Bulldogs had won their first game 6-0. McCall again was the shining light of an airtight defense, and his vicious tackling will long be a topic of discussion among the natives of Mobile. The Bulldogs worked smoothly and fought hard for a victory that they richly deserved and came back to find the students waiting for them with open arms. It was in this game that Doug Kloor was relegated to the bench to take his place among the numerous cripples already gracing a well filled sick list.

October 27 found the Bulldogs ready for the Mississippi State Teachers College and when time was called to end the game, Southwestern had added another victory to the win column by a score of 36-9. The game was a walkover for a rejuvenated Bulldog team and every man on the squad was given a chance to display his wares that day. It was in this game that Phedias Bordelon was crowned the "touchdown king" by virtue of his long run for a score and subsequent remarks by the "crazy Frenchman" as Coach Prather dubbed him.

The Bulldogs had now hit their stride and ran roughshod over a strong Louisiana Polytech team 46-6. In many ways this game was spectacular and from start to finish there were thrills galore for the 2500 spectators who filled the stadium. A touchdown on the kickoff was made through the combined efforts of Captain Courmier and "Wee Willie" Richard when Courmier grabbed the oval on the kick-off, dashed 80 yards down the field, fumbled the ball within 20 yards of the goal where Richard picked it up and carried it over for the first touchdown. The Tech team rallied and started a march down the field that ended only when they crossed the goal line, but after this spurt the Bulldogs came back with a slashing, driving offense to avenge defeats of two years at the hands of the Tech Bulldogs. Jordan, Courmier, and Lafleur were the shining lights in this affray.

Fresh from three straight victories, Southwestern, en masse, blew into Pineville to take on the Wildcats of Louisiana College. A special train, carrying more than 300 Southwestern students and fans with the Southwestern Band furnishing stirring music for the occasion pulled into the station at Alexandria and unloaded its excited human freight. This had the makings of a red letter day for Southwestern but the first setback came when a Wildcat Cross County team marred the day by winning from Southwestern. However, this did little to dampen the enthusiasm of the loyal Southwesterners; and when the whistle was sounded to start the game, a mighty roar was heard from the Red and White cheering section. All went well for a while both sides playing hard until the Wildcats put over a touchdown. Undaunted, the Bulldogs came back and retaliated with a marker to make the score 7-6 in favor of the Cats. Towards the close of the game the Cats put over another touchdown. The score 14-7 will never tell of the feverish excitement, and tremendous enthusiasm, that prevailed on November 10 in Pineville.

"On to Jackson" was the battle cry the next week, but it was in this last stronghold of Confederacy that the Bulldogs met their Waterloo, and proved the assertion that a team is hard to beat on Homecoming Day, for they went down before the militant Majors of Millsaps College 31-7. A muddy field and injuries proved the Nemesis of Southwestern on November 17 in Jackson, Mississippi. It was in this game that Jordan, bruised, battered and both eyes closed played one of the

finest games that this diminutive little quarterback has ever played for Southwestern. His playing in the previous games of the season was exceptionally good, but this affray was the water mark of his entire football career.

Every dog has his day as the old saying reads, but it was Bulldogs' day Thanksgiving Day when they broke a two-year jinx and defeated their greatest rivals, the Normal Demons 13-6. As it was also Homecoming Day, the Bulldogs just could not lose, but it was only after a terrific and hectic struggle that they managed to come out on top. More than 3500 spectators crowded the stadium and witnessed one of the greatest struggles between these two ancient rivals that has ever taken place in Lafayette. Normal scored first; but as is characteristic of all true Southwesterners, the Bulldogs came right back and shoved over a touchdown to even up things. The break came after a battle had been waged in mid-field during the early stages of the last half, when Montie blocked a punt by Cornish and McCullough fell on it over the goal line to score the second touchdown for Southwestern. Montie, Courmier, and Jordan, playing their last game in Southwestern uniform were the outstanding players of this game.

With the defeat of Normal the Bulldogs closed a successful season, winning four games and losing three, two of these being lost to conference teams and therefore having no bearing on their S. I. A. A. rating. There remains only to add that never before has such fine fellowship and a spirit of cooperation been shown by members of a Southwestern football team, and it is to be hoped that the same spirit will be exhibited next year when members of the squad gather for the 1929 season.

Freshman Football

COACH Pickell and his small squad of Freshmen had a very successful season, considering the inexperienced men with which this young mentor had to work. In the entire squad there were only six men who had had previous training.

The first engagement, with the shifty New Iberia High School Team, was an uninteresting affair. The green, little "pups" did not know "which way" or "when" to run. The struggle ended, however 6-0 in their favor. The stronghold of the L. S. U. freshmen was then invaded for a game, with the result that our freshmen were thoroughly trounced by a score of 39-0. Those who saw the contest praised our team highly for putting up such a good fight against a much heavier and more experienced team.

The following week the Opelousas High School team was beaten on their own field, 25-0. One week later Coach took his boys to Ruston where they were defeated 18-6 by the Tech freshmen.

It was during the last game of the season that the first year men fully redeemed themselves by defeating our ancient rivals, Louisiana College. The two teams were well matched and our boys fought hard for every inch gained. When the dust of battle had settled the score was 23-6. A glorious day for the Freshmen. Several men proved their worth on that day. Vincent was a terror on both offense and defense. Cagle's passes were accurate and Baham was usually on the receiving end. Brown, Ducote and Fontenot were mainstays in the line.

We shall watch, with a great deal of interest, the activities of these men in Varsity Football next year.

Varsity Basketball

UNDER the guidance of Coach E. J. Pickell, ex-Arkansas Razorback basketball star, the Bulldogs experienced one of the most successful basketball seasons in the history of Southwestern, considering the caliber of teams played and the nature of the schedule.

Following a slow start, the Bulldogs improved with great rapidity and towards the close of the season were flashing a powerful attack that swept all opponents off their feet. Coach Pickell completely revised the system and style of basketball played at Southwestern, and inaugurated one that met with marked success.

A feature of the season was the home stand of the Bulldog cagers who won seven consecutive games on the Southwestern court, each one a thrilling contest ending with last minute rallies. The Bulldogs defeated Louisiana Tech and Louisiana State University in dual engagements, Southwestern of Memphis, and Mississippi College in single contests, and split a two game series with Louisiana College Wildcats, to run their total of games won on the home court to seven. Previous to this, however, the Bulldogs played only mediocre basketball, losing several contests on road trips. Coach Pickell took his charges over into Texas for the first games of the season and brought them back with a record of two victories and three losses out of five contests. While this was not an encouraging start the Bulldogs were proud of the fact that they trounced the mighty Rice Owls of Houston this trip.

Later other trips were made up into the northern section of the state where the team broke about even, splitting several two game engagements. It was when the Bulldogs began the series of home games that their team hit its stride and was never stopped until it had swept all opposition aside and broke into the S. I. A. A. tournament at Jackson, Mississippi, throwing a scare into the Mercer Bears that will long be remembered by those present at the tournament. An extra period had to be played to break a tie in this contest and the Bulldogs lost by a bare margin of three points and were eliminated.

Morgan Rodemacher was high scorer for Southwestern, making 197 points for the season and setting an S. I. A. A. record by scoring 23 points in a game with Louisiana Tech.

P. W. Bordelon, runner-up to Rodemacher, scored a total of 148 points during the season. Jim Holloway, lanky center, ranked third in scoring activities with 137 points, and following Holloway was Elvin Brand with 78 points. These four men did much to add to the success of the Bulldogs. The reserves must not be left out, however, for Terrell, Jordan, Gooch and others were used regularly and gave a good account of themselves. Hayes, Kloor, and Gooch did the guarding for Southwestern and very seldom was any opponent able to get by for a score. The team won 6 S. I. A. A. games and lost 6; won 9 college games and lost 8. During the entire season, including the independent teams, as well as the college teams that were engaged, Southwestern won 10 games and lost 12.

Freshman Basketball

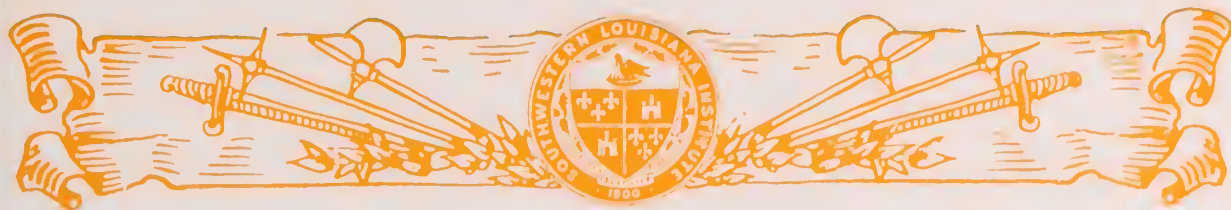

WHAT is thought to be a record has been established by the Southwestern Louisiana Institute freshman basketball team who have just recently completed their schedule of sixteen games with not a single loss chalked up against them. They have played some of the best high schools in this section of the country and defeated them all by a substantial margin, coupled with victories over all of their college opponents. Consequently, a claim for the state championship has been announced.

James Frederick of Covington, Louisiana, was the outstanding freshman player, this lanky center making a total of 163 points for the season, and his team-mate, Eugene Stephens, next with 127 points. These two men along with Vincent of Sulphur, Louisiana, and Howard Dugas of Scott, Louisiana will be great assets to the varsity next year and will bear watching. Director of Athletics T. R. Mobley, in announcing the results of the frosh season, stated that scores for four of the games were not available. The games played, and the results, are as follows:

S. L. I. 43, New Iberia Hi 13; S. L. I. 56, Scott Hi 23; S. L. I. 35, Kaplan 25; S. L. I. 74, St. Martin Hi 11; S. L. I. 61, New Iberia Hi 5; S. L. I. 75, Crowley Hi 6; S. L. I. 39, Scott Hi 14; S. The freshmen squad is made up of the following boys: Howard Dugas, Scott; Eugene Stephens, East Point; James Frederick, Covington; Holton Vincent, Sulphur; Boyd Faulk, Lafayette; Wayne Baham, Amite; Howard Young, Church Point; Raymond Brown, Slagle, and Norris Cagle, Merryville.

Varsity Track Season

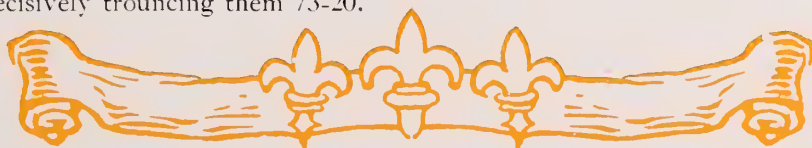

DESPITE old Jupiter Pluvius, cold weather and other setbacks, the Southwestern Bulldog spikemen experienced a most successful track season, winning all but one dual meet, defeating Normal, Mississippi College, Louisiana Tech, Louisiana College and Loyola and losing to Louisiana State University.

The Bulldogs were runners up to L. S. U. in the Southwestern Relay Carnival and took second place in the S. I. A. A.

On April 14 the Bulldog cinderpath artists met Loyola in the Southwestern Stadium and when the final race was run, and points were tabulated, it was found that the Bulldogs were first with 84 points while Loyola had garnered only 31. Following this meet, on April 21, the Bulldogs met Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge and, although the Freshmen took the measure of Louisiana State's Baby Bengals, the Bulldogs lost by a big margin.

In a triangular meet with Mississippi College and Louisiana Polytechnic Institute at Ruston, Southwestern took first place making 56 points to Mississippi's 48 and Tech's 31. The week following the meet at Ruston, Coach Browne's chargers met Louisiana College in Lafayette and sent the Wildcats back home with a 86-31 defeat. Not to be outdone, the Bullpups also sent the Kittens back to Pineville after decisively trouncing them 73-20.

Among the outstanding performers on the Bulldog cinderpath squad was Johnny Morriss, star hurdler, who set a record for the high hurdles in the Relay Carnival and took first place in every meet with the exception of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association games when he was beaten by Eubanks, Oglethorpe flash, who set a new record in the high hurdles on that day.

Levi "Squats" Jordan was another performer of outstanding merit, having never been beaten in the broad jump. Jordan holds the Relay Carnival Record for the broad jump which has never been equalled in subsequent games.

The 1928 Bulldog squad was ably captained by Howard Lafleur of Ville Platte, who was succeeded by Elgin Boggs for 1929.

Both of these men, as well as Morriss, have another year of track competition and predictions are that they will be outstanding in S. I. A. A. contests.

Tennis Season of 1928

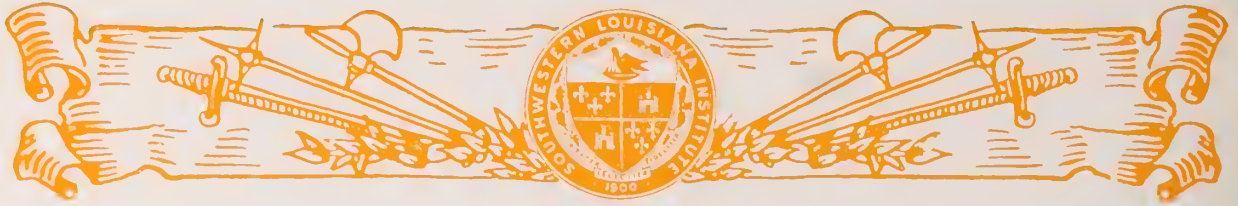

CONSIDERING all things, the season of '28 marked the entry of Southwestern into "big-time" intercollegiate tennis. A majority of the S. I. A. A. contests were won, and several large universities were engaged.

Gardner (captain), Barnett (manager), Broussard and LaBorde composed the team. They won two out of three from Millsaps, lost 1-2 to Centenary, and won 5-0 from their traditional rival, Louisiana College. In a strenuous match with L. S. U., the Bulldogs came within one contest of tying the score. The results were 2-4 in favor of L. S. U. Hard fought matches were lost to Tulane and North Carolina University. The latter group was the most distant team ever to engage Southwestern, and was probably composed of the best raquetters ever seen on the local courts.

The doubles combination of Gardner and Barnett gave the home fans a real treat when they won in straight sets from the number one team of L. S. U. Gardner's defeat of Boswell of Millsaps, and Barnett's victory over Hackett of the State University were probably the high spots of the home matches.

Three letter men are in school this year, and prospects look bright for a continuation of past successes.

Intramural Sports

THE spring of 1928 saw inaugurated the first series of intramural sports in the history of Southwestern. The groups that entered the competition were three fraternities, S. P. A., P. K. A., and T. S. D., and an independent group of non-fraternity men.

The first engagements were in basketball. These games, held at night, drew even better crowds than the regular intercollegiate matches. After a hectic and hard-fought struggle, the Sigma Pi Alpha group emerged victors. Then came tennis. S. P. A. was lucky in having three of the varsity squad on its team, and romped through without the loss of a match. But in baseball, the Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity came through on top after hard fights with the T. S. D.'s and the Non-Fraternities. And to make matters more even, the Tau Sig's out-golfed their opponents to win first in that sport. The S. P. A.'s, however, by winning second place in the golf tournament, clinched the title as the first intramural champions of Southwestern. Track engagements were not held, as the above results decided the contest.

Coach T. R. Mobley presented to Spencer Barnett, governor of the Sigma Pi Alpha Fraternity, a magnificent loving cup to be the property of the fraternity. At that time Coach expressed the opinion that this program of spring sports gave more men a chance to engage in competitive athletics, and was a most successful undertaking.

Honor System

The Student Honor Council is a body representative of all students at Southwestern and concerned with problems of the whole student body. The United Council is composed of the Honor Councils of the Girls' Dormitories. Its chief interests center about dormitory rules. The smaller units of this council, the Dormitory Honor Councils enforce these rules and punish minor offenses against them.

WE HAVE enjoyed our quartet this year. One of its members, Spencer Barnett, will not be back next year. In spite of the fact that we shall miss him very much, the prospects for a good quartet in the future look bright, the other members being Freshmen. Meanwhile we sincerely hope that nothing will happen to our famous "Pat".

ENTRY

I, who have always been,
Am here from the ends of the earth.
I came with the white of Calla lilies, and the scent
Of Jasmine
It is so easy to think of me, and so hard to forget.

You try to toil in the old stolid way
But I steal near with soft footsteps,
To press my soft fingers over your eyes.
When you strain your soul against the stars,
I am the soundless paeon of glory and of light
That fills your heart.
A child stroking your cheek with his soft palm
Brings me as your smile of tenderness . . .
Your dreams and hopes will know me
And your fears.

I came with the white of Calla lilies, and the scent
Of Jasmine.
Take me I am love.

Spencer Barnett.

The First National Bank of Lafayette

THIRTY-EIGHT YEARS AGO, the First National had its beginning in a small way, being the first incorporated bank to serve this section. Its consistent and sincere interest in its patrons' welfare, combined with conservative management, has caused it to be recognized by authorities as one of the most substantial and progressive banks in South Louisiana.

Saving is Making

THE most important thing in saving is to make your savings accumulate and multiply. Dividends are compounded every six months and compound dividends accumulate with marvelous rapidity. Now is the time to subscribe to paid-up or running shares. A fund of $92,000.00 assures dividends and safeguards the stability of the association.

A BETTER BOOK

 with less effort

THE SCHOOL ANNUAL can be produced more intelligently when one firm is responsible for the complete book.

Hence this organization will in the future contract for the entire book, both printing and engraving. In this manner a better knowledge of the finished book can be had at the beginning. Errors can be lessened and production speeded.
